

Spanish is the primary language in the Dominican Republic. Use a computer or nonfiction book to look up how to speak a few basic phrases in Spanish. Try practising how to say your name and where you live with a family member!	Approximately 30 cocoa pods grow on each cocoa tree. On your next walk outside, see how many different types of tree have grown fruit or flowers. How many can you name?	On the largest piece of paper you can find, draw the different steps in making chocolate, from farm to chocolate bar! Next, cut the paper into puzzle pieces. Mix up the pieces and see if you can reassemble your own puzzle!
In the film, we see Tayna learn how to cut a cocoa pod from the tree. Can you invent three new contraptions to cut cocoa pods from trees? Draw them... or maybe even try to make a working model!	MY Fairtrade Adventure  FAIRTRADE AGES 11-14	Fermentation is a chemical breakdown of a substance by bacteria, yeasts or other microorganisms. Sourdough bread is also made with a natural fermented 'starter' of water and flour. Ask a grown-up if you can try making your own sourdough starter. Look up a recipe and try baking your own loaf!
Pretend you are a chef at a famous restaurant. Design a menu that only offers chocolate-themed food for breakfast, lunch, dinner and dessert!	Write a poem titled 'Where does the chocolate journey begin?' Submit your poem to the Divine & Christian Aid Poetry Competition! The deadline is the 5th of June 2020.	The Dominican Republic is an island in the Caribbean. Pretend you are a travel agent. Use a computer or nonfiction book to learn more about this country. Design a travel brochure!

