

Chocolate's history dates back well over 2,000 years to Mexico. Use a computer to conduct research and create a poster titled 'The History of Chocolate'.	It's time to put your baking skills to the test! Bake or cook using Fairtrade chocolate this week. Send a picture of your creation to schools@fairtrade.org.uk.	A typical cocoa farmer in Côte d'Ivoire lives on less than $1 per day. This is not enough money to feed and care for a family. Show retailers that farmers deserve a fair deal. Write a letter to a retailer that sells chocolate telling them about Fairtrade.
A poem where the first letter of each line spells out a word is called an acrostic poem. Try writing your own! C _____ H _____ O _____ C _____ O _____ L _____ A _____ T _____ E _____		At the Cayat cooperative farmers also grow bananas, chilies and manioc to diversify their incomes. Draw and label a picture of crops that grow in Côte d'Ivoire.
60% of the world's cocoa comes from Ghana and Côte d'Ivoire. Get creative and try your hand at drawing a range of adinkra symbols, the special West African symbols you might have seen on Fairtrade Divine chocolate bars! You will need this handout.	Ann Marie tells us about the daily routine of a cocoa farmer. Create a comic or story board to illustrate a day in the life of a cocoa farmer in CAYAT.	Download and print this world map from National Geographic. Can you find Côte d'Ivoire? Colour the countries and flags with sharp coloured pencils. Why not use one colour to highlight the countries where cocoa grows?

Children's University stamp code: green4151